- 09:15-10:45 PANEL

VERTICALS: THE PATH TOWARDS 2022

Until 2022 the EU will be updating its Verticals Block Exemption Regulation. This will trigger interesting discussions about the future of online sales & platforms, selective distribution and online pricing and sales restrictions, including (i) direct and indirect resale price maintenance practices (including the use of price monitoring software), (ii) price and other parity clauses restrictions on cross-border sales (e.g. dual pricing or geoblocking), (iii) dual distribution.

Moderator: Ruben Elkerbout, Stek, Netherlands

Panellists: Johanna Kübler, Commeo, Germany | Radovan Kubáč, Nedelka Kubáč advokáti, Czech Republic | Szilvia Szekely, European Commission, Belgium | Theon van Dijk, E.CA Economics, Belgium

DIGITAL COMPETITION AND PRO-COMPETITIVE REGULATION

Prof. Philip Marsden, UK

Discussion moderator: Prof. Peter Georg Picht, Schellenberg Wittmer and University of Zurich, Switzerland

● 12:00-13:30 LUNCH

● 13:30-15:00 PANEL
MERGER CONTROL: WHAT'S HOT?

This panel will discuss key trends such as the various reforms of/potential changes to jurisdictional thresholds, the increased focus on procedural infringements, the role of ECN+ and cross-border cooperation, the apparent shift towards behavioural commitments while not forgetting potential concerns arising from market power in innovation and data-driven markets.

Moderator: Cormac Little, William Fry, Ireland

Panellists: Asko Lindqvist, Borenus Attorneys, Finland | Barbara Veronese, CEG Europe, Italy | Diarmuid Ryan, Squire Patton Boggs, UK and Belgium | Silke Möller, Glade Michel Wirtz, Germany | Volker Weiss, Schönherr, Belgium

● 15:00-15:30 COFFEE BREAK

● 15:30-17:00 PANEL
POLITICAL DIMENSIONS OF MERGER CONTROL PROCEDURES

The political aspects of high profile mergers with political components, such as Siemens Alstom are getting more important. This is also relevant for a new industrial policy in a world of the powerplay US vs EU vs China. The panel will discuss what political implications practitioners have to consider and how they can they play against or in favour of a case.

Moderator: Sarah Biontino, Biontino Europe, Belgium

Panellists: Joséphine Fourquet, Paul Hastings, France | Jürgen Schindler, Allen & Overy, Belgium | Nathalie McNeilis, MLex, Belgium | Sara Ashall, Shearman & Sterling, Belgium

● 19:30 DINNER RECEPTION

SATURDAY, 25 MAY 2019

● 09:45-11:15 PANEL

ABUSE OF DOMINANCE: UPDATE AND OUTLOOK

This panel will discuss current issues on the dominance scene, including the trendy GAFAs cases, potential modifications of dominance rules, recent excessive pricing cases, based on the position of both EU and national authorities and the courts.

Moderator: Evelyn Niitväli, RCAA, Germany

Panellists: Albert Pereda, Lonza Ltd, Switzerland | Davina Garrod, Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP, UK | Eva Cruellas Sada, Gianni, Origoni, Grippo, Cappelli & Partners, Italy | Jérémie Jourdan, White & Case, Belgium | Miguel de la Mano, Compass Lexecon, Belgium

● 11:15-11:30 COFFEE BREAK

● 11:30-13:00 PANEL

ANTITRUST COMPLIANCE

Antitrust compliance programs are being implemented in many companies; what is the value of such programs for competition authorities / national courts in their fine setting practice or when awarding damages? New technologies can be a valuable tool for companies in order to prove that they have effective compliance programs in place - how can new technologies assist companies?

Moderator: Elena Garcia Aguado, Thyssenkrupp Elevator AG

Panellists: Marie Leppard, Euclid Law, UK | Nikiforos Iatrou, McCarthy Tétrault, Canada | Sebastian Brack, Deutsche Bahn AG, Germany

● 13:00-13:15 CLOSING
